KEEPING OUR NIGHT SKY SAFE FOR MIGRATING BIRDS

PECO is proud to participate in Lights Out Philly, created to protect migratory birds as they navigate Philadelphia's night sky.

LIGHTS OUT PHILLY

The organization was created in response to a mass collision event on October 2, 2020, in which thousands of migratory birds died after colliding with buildings in Center City. Participants turn off as many non-essential exterior and interior lights as possible, so they will not confuse birds from midnight to 6 a.m. during spring and fall migration.

This simple action can potentially reduce bird deaths up to 80%. It also helps reduce energy costs. Anyone can participate – residents, businesses and municipalities. Learn more about the partnership that created this initiative, the many participating organizations and find out how you can help at birdsafephilly.org

HOW IS PECO PARTICIPATING?

- PECO building's interior lights, activated by sensors, are dark when not in use.
- PECO's iconic Crown Lights messaging system will feature movement/animation and we've adjusted the brightness.
