GAS SAFETY: KEEP YOUR METER CLEAR OF LEAVES & DEBRIS

- Do not pile leaves in a way that limits access to your meter for service visits or emergency situations.
- Make sure exhaust vents and air intakes of natural gas appliances are not obstructed. If they’re blocked, dangerous carbon monoxide (CO) could accumulate in your home.

To report a gas or electric emergency, call 1-800-841-4141.
THIRD-PARTY NOTIFICATION: A GOOD SAFETY NET

What is third-party notification? You can designate a trusted relative, friend, clergy member or social workers to receive a shut-off notice from PECO when you fall behind on a bill. That way, if you (or someone you are close to) becomes ill, is no longer able to handle their affairs, or is away for an extended period of time, there is someone that can contact PECO for you. Find out more at peco.com/help or by calling 1-800-494-4000.

MONEY TIGHT? CASH IN ON LIHEAP

Get your PECO bill paid for through LIHEAP. Apply now at peco.com/LIHEAP or call 1-800-34-HELP4. Get up to a $1,000 cash grant toward your PECO bill. You never have to pay it back. Funds are limited—first come, first served.
