

ELECTRIC RATES TO CHANGE BEGINNING APRIL 1, 2021

Beginning with service provided April 1, 2021, changes will affect your monthly electric bill. For a residential customer using 700 kilowatt-hours (kWh) per month, the effect of this approved change is a total increase of $0.25 to the typical monthly bill, from $100.29 to $100.54 or 0.25%. The enclosed bill reflects these changes. Here are the details:

Consumer Education Plan Costs: PECO's Consumer Education Plan helps educate customers on Pennsylvania's competitive energy market. The plan includes certain costs approved by the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission (PAPUC). The impact of these changes on the Customer Charge is:

Rate R – Residential Service, Rate RH – Residential Heating Service and CAP – Customer Assistance Program is increasing by four cents to $10.02

Rate GS – General Service will remain a rate of zero cent.

Rate HT – High Tension Power will increase by nine cents to $353.85.

Rate PD – Primary Distribution Power will increase by nine cents to $295.95.

Distribution System Improvement Charge (DSIC): The DSIC, which is shown as a separate line item on your bill, allows PECO to accelerate the modernization of the distribution system through the installation, replacement and relocation of electric equipment and facilities. The DSIC will increase from a value of 0.35% to a value of 0.73%. This change will result in an increase of $0.21 per month for a typical residential customer using 700 kWh per month. This change will result in an increase of $0.89 per month for small commercial customers and a $12.91 for large commercial customers.

Rate R – Residential Monthly Billed Charges
