Centre Theater Gallery | Norristown | Opening June 17, 2022

The Charles L. Blockson Exhibition—one of the nation's largest collections of African American history—opens during Juneteenth Weekend 2022. Blockson, a Norristown native, is a renowned authority on Black genealogy and a leading expert on the Underground Railroad. Blockson once said it was his "main goal in life to build a good library of Black History. Knowledge is a form of Black power and this is my part in it." Admission is free for children and students Juneteenth Weekend courtesy of PECO.
